FORGERY AND PIRACY

PARRY AND CO.

Beg to caution the public that the TRADE MARKS of many of the Firms they represent are PIRATED and by this means SPURIOUS and WORTHLESS goods are foisted on purchasers, instead of the GENUINE articles.

The SHAM labels are wonderfully well got up to fulfil their nefarious mission.

Some of them bear a forgery of manufacturer's signature, others have apocryphal signatures, one or two letters being altered in so artistic a manner as almost to defy detection. Whilst many bear NO NAME whatever, but in general appearance closely resemble the authentic labels.

We have taken LEGAL PROCEEDINGS, and trust that the heavy penalties accorded under the Trade Mark Law will put a stop to FORGERY and PIRACY

The following particulars may prevent many from being duped by dishonest dealers as they will enable the purchaser to detect imitations, and insist on obtaining the genuine articles—

Crosse and Blackwell. Pickles

See that the well known white and gold arched top label bearing their name and address (21 Soho-Square, London) is on the bottle, and also look for the name and address on top and signature on side of capsule, without none are genuine.

JAMS and JELLIES of this famous brand also bear C and B.'s name on labels.

FRENCH CAPERS. Legitimate only when C. & B's name and address is found on label and capsule; avoid similar bottles which bear NO NAME on label or capsule.

Arthur Guinness Son & Co.'s Extra Stout

BEWARE of a very well executed and most dangerous imitation of the famous HARP LABEL. This even bears a FORGERY of GUINNESS' SIGNATURE as well as PIRACY of the TRADE-MARK.

PIG BRAND STOUT

None is legitimate without the signature of the proprietors (Messrs William Edmonds Jr & Co.) on capsule, their label on side and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on neck of Bottle.

Bull Dog, bottling of Bass & Co.'s Pale Ale

Genuine only when the bottle bears Messrs BASS & Co.'s world renowned RED TRIANGLE trade label on one side, Messrs. READ BROS.'S BULL DOG LABEL on the other and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on the neck.

Washington Morton and Alfred Morton & Co.'s

Celebrated WINES & FINE CHAMPAGNE BRANDIES. Every bottle of the genuine bears their name on capsule, cork and label, and our signature as SOLE AGENTS at foot of the latter.

Kimmel's Brown Windsor Soap

Each cake of the genuine has the maker's name moulded on one side and the words SOLE AGENTS PARRY & Co. Buenos Aires, on the other.

Lea and Perrins Sauce

The label on EVERY bottle of the genuine WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE bears the signature LEA & PERRINS and OUR name amongst the list of WHOLESALE AGENTS.

Colman's Mustard, Corn Flour Blue, Starch

None of these are genuine unless they bear the BULLS HEAD Trade Mark. Inferior goods packed and labelled in a manner calculated to deceive, are freely offered in the most shameless manner. Ask for and see that you get J & J COLMAN'S genuine productions which all bear their name, Trade Mark BULLS HEAD and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS for this Republic.

Angostura Bitters

The market is INUNDATED with immitations, which are WORTHLESS and INJURIOUS. Every bottle of the genuine article bears on the neck our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Epps's Breakfast Cocoa and Chocolate

Every packet of the legitimate article bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Eugene Clicquot's Champagne

Each bottle of this renowned brand bears the registered trade label of the proprietor and our SIGNATURE LABEL AS SOLE AGENTS.

Old Tom Gin

Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S celebrated cordial bears their signature label and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Invalid Port

GREAT ATTENTION and care have been dedicated by Messrs BOORD & SON to this SPECIALITY, and we can confidently recommend it.

Fine Pale Sherry

Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S well know white label bears also our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS. As an agreeable light ECONOMICAL dinner wine, it is not to be excelled.

Lorne Whisky

Has an enviable reputation all over the world: every bottle of this PURE HIGHLAND WHISKY bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Red Heart Rum

Justly celebrated for its great age, purity and other excellent qualities and specially recommended as a preventive for CHOLERA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLD &tc. is genuine only when capsules are stamped and the corks branded BERRY WHITE & Co. and when each bottle bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS above the Red Heart label.

Bumsted's Royal British Table Salt

This refined article is obtained from natural and pure brine springs and is vastly superior to the ordinary quality. Each bottle bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label in the CENTRE of that of the manufacturer.

Anglo Bavarian Ale

VIENNA 1873, FIRST CLASS PRIZE, GOLD MEDAL PARIS, 1878. To those accustomed to drink GERMAN ALE we strongly recommend this light and pleasant beverage.

Champagne Cider,

HENLEY & SON'S celebrated brand Each bottle bears the RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Tea.

We guarantee all our brands PURE and of the VERY BEST QUALITY, and caution the public against receiving any boxes that have been OPENED and the LEADS CUT, as we know that our empty packages are REFILLED WITH INFERIOR MIXTURES and offered for sale as genuine. Each box bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label.

Attention.

Notwithstanding the HEAVY PENALTIES inflicted by the Trade Mark Law, individuals will persist in FORGING the signatures and IMITATING the Trade Marks of CELEBRATED AND WELL-KNOWN manufacturers NON-RESIDENT in this country, whilst they are very chary and frightened of doing so in the case of a firm living on the spot. We therefore strongly advise the public to take the goods for which we are Agents ONLY when they bear OUR LABELS.

Mr Howard and others spoke, approving the measure as tending to do away with illegitimate business.

Charles McLean made some observations, but in general the measure was approved. Many members of the community did not go.

The Committee's frontier will be final; no appeal.

THE SITUATION.

President Avellaneda's manifesto is the first step taken by the Nat. Government to check the rather extraordinary state of things in this city; and although, when this document first made its appearance, excited politicians predicted immediate trouble, forty-eight hours have now elapsed without any further demonstration than that of an unarmed procession before the Governor's hall door, which is, in fact, an adhesion to the very edict against which they so demonstratively protest.

Party politics are so very bitter that it is almost impossible to offer an opinion that will not offend either side; but we certainly think it is high time that General Mitre should return from the camp, if for no other purpose than to remind his 'co-religionarios' of his oft-told precept that the worst government is better than the very best revolution: an aphorism which some of the writers of his newspaper seem to have forgotten.

The blue ruin that awaits this country in the event of the slightest attempt at revolution should nerve both Governor and President to every possible effort to repress it. President Avellaneda has already in his Manifesto played his part, and it is to be seen now what step to rescue the country from the catastrophe will be adopted by Governor Tejedor, whose sound good sense is worth more to the country at present than the whole stock of Remingtons in it; and we trust more to the brains of the Governor and to his patriotism than to the efforts of his party to extricate us from a situation which only the gravest political errors could have produced.

Yesterday morning the Nacion published on the same sheet the Edict of the National Government prohibiting the assemblage of armed citizens and the Edict of the Committee of the Tiro Nacional summoning the Volunteers to meet on next Sunday. Now we merely point to this to show that in no other country would such a thing be allowed. Had President Hayes put his signature to the Manifesto we have all read, there would not be found throughout the whole Union a paper to print, in the same breath, a notice in direct contravention of that Manifesto; not that North American editors have not equally strong party questions politics, &c., but that an innate respect for authority and law exists in that country which we want here. If the Province of Buenos Ayres or the Argentine Republic apprehends new dangers, possibly those dangers are due more to the pens of her editors than the rifles of her Volunteers.

In no other country under the sun is revolution more written up than in B. Ayres. Day after day we have the same dangerous teaching read in every household, and can we wonder at the result? A strong Opposition party is the very life of free institutions; without it the liberties of the people would be endangered; but when that Opposition, instead of guarding our liberties imperils them—when open sedition is preached in our midst and the trade and credit of the country jeopardised by inflammatory articles, the Opposition that is parent of such abuse becomes alike as impolitic as inconvenient.

The wording of President Avellaneda's Manifesto is so excellent and temperate—the appeal he makes to the patriotism and common sense of his fellow-citizens is so just—that we should be slow to think the paper in question will not produce the very best effect. All parties must admit that some step was called for, and it would be difficult to point out a wiser or more patriotic measure than the one in question. Many supposed that the town would be declared in a state of siege; others thought that a decree aimed purely against the Tiro Nacional would be published, but the President, who seems to thoroughly understand the character of the people he rules, has resorted to neither such measure, but in a mild and ably-written Manifesto appealed to the people themselves to aid him in carrying out the existing laws without framing new ones.

The intellectual Argentine in studying the situation of his country will strip it of accessories and abolish mere pretexts. The present critical position of the country owes less to Tejedor, Roca, the Chacarita army or Tiro Nacional, than to its growing prosperity and advancement.

The subject is a very severe one, and dates back from the political formation given to the country after Pavon. We, however, who have such faith in the future of the nation, cannot stop to dwell on the error; and if men who figure as statesmen cannot awaken to facts and truths, the Juggernaut car of Argentine progress will crush them beneath its wheels.

LATEST FROM ROSARIO

(Our own Correspondent.)

Feb. 11th.

On the 3rd of February 1852 the ominous power of Rosas was annihilated, and this day is consequently a venerated anniversary. But I question very much if another event, which happened also on a third of February, was not fraught with more momentous and universal results. On the 3rd of this month the people of San Lorenzo celebrated with all possible pomp and enthusiasm the sixty-seventh anniversary of the combat of San Lorenzo, when General, then Colonel San Martin, with a couple of hundred of his afterwards immortal Mounted Grenadiers, defeated the Spanish force that had attempted a landing at that point. The pine tree under which the wounded chief reposed after the battle still stands green and healthy; under it was placed the bust of the great Argentine warrior, crowned with wreaths, and it was saluted by the fire of a battalion of infantry. Here the panegyric was pronounced by the Prior of the old Monastery. The little town was decked with flags, and large numbers of people from Rosario joined in the festivities.

The importance of the passage of arms, on the banks of the Paraná, on the 3rd of February 1813, has not been sufficiently understood by Argentines, who prefer rather to glorify their great victories. But an historical writer would be more inclined to place the combat of San Lorenzo in the list of the Decisive battles of Nations. Creasy, in his admirable work on the Decisive Battles of the World, leaves Austerlitz, Jena, Marengo, Hohenlinden aside, and describes the comparatively insignificant affair of Valmy, where Dumouriez and Kellerman checked the advancing troops of Prussia and Austria, as the decisive battle of the long period of French conquest; for it was on that day the raw Carmagnole contingents learnt for the first time that they could withstand the shock of veteran troops. As Alison says: 'From the cannonade of Valmy may be dated the commencement of that career of victory which carried their arms to Vienna and the Kremlin.' In the same manner the brilliant and successful attack of a handful of raw militia on the veteran soldiers of Spain, gave birth to the valour, enthusiasm, and patriotism that carried the Argentine flag across the Andes and for ever destroyed Spanish domination in South America. The combat of San Lorenzo was the Valmy of the Argentine War of Independence.

Carnival has come and, thank goodness, has gone. In Rosario it was played with a good deal of spirit; that means to say that the trade in pomitos was exceedingly brisk, and that there are few young men who have not spent a month's salary in the edifying fun of squirting scented and unscented water at the fair sex, who apparently seemed to enjoy it. 'Chacun á son gout.' About twenty squares of the city were adorned with arches of gas, which made the streets as light as day; and a dozen 'comparsas', in all imaginary and unimaginary costumes, swarmed about the carriages and their brilliant occupants, vieing with each other who should enjoy the felicity of the most thorough drenching.

The idea of the most orthodox of correspondents being able to write anything sensible at this time is simply ridiculous. If you carefully examine these sheets you will perceive blots in all directions; the fact being that while writing, I am obliged to suffer every now and then a shower of Frangipani, that not only makes my words run into one another but my ideas also. One ought to say that on Ash Wednesday Carnival should cease; but what if one's stock of pomitos should not be exhausted on Tuesday night? The inference is ineludible.

The weather has been and continues to be excesssively hot. We are becoming used to a hundred in the shade. Three weeks have passed without rain, and the new moon made her appearance this morning looking as if she would be all the better for a glass of Biekert. People begin to look about for palpable effects from the appearance of the Comet, and a great drought is the first thing predicted. Why don't Mr. Gould introduce us in a regular manner to this celestial visitor, who still persists in keeping his head under his tail, like a huge ostrich? Is it a Mr. Beiler, or Mr. Donati, or Mr Halley, or is he a perfect stranger in these parts? He has a most wonderful appendage; almost as long as Mr. O'Connell's tail. I took out my pocket tape line the other night, and measured it: thirty seven and a half degrees; less a few inches.

Chronometers were made to keep time. The Spanish schooner Cronometro has proved herself to be from a good maker. She left this port in the middle of August with a cargo for Barcelona. She made a good voyage, loaded in the same port for Rosario, and made the trip from Barcelona to Buenos Ayres in 46 days.

Although, as a rule, I do not meddle with politics, still I should be glad now and then to be able to add a little of that spicy condiment to my letters. Your Montevidean correspondent varies the tenor of his letters with agreeable chat about political affairs. But here in Rosario, apart from the daily editorials in re Tejedor and Roca, politics do not enter into the daily life of this cosmopolitan community. In fact the daily papers scarcely meddle with politics. The editors would open their eyes were they able to read this, but it is no less true Eulogium of one man and abuse of another is about the extent of our editors' knowledge in the science of politics. There are reports of Mr. Bayo resigning the Gefatura in Rosario. As he is a staunch Roquista, his being removed from the command of this Department at this moment would give us a peep into the hand of Dr. Iriondo. He is very close this Governor of ours, but I think he will back the dark horse, if he is called Irigoyen. Dr. Iriondo has an intuitive faculty of knowing on which side his bread is buttered.

11th Feb.

The Carnival feasts have passed. Too many feast days by at least two. The rejoicings were very meagre, the people being evidently inclined to saving useless expense. The street ornaments, though limited to the 18th July Street, the Independence and Constitution squares and intervening space, surpassed, in good taste, those of last year, though the latter were more costly. The first-named square is a splendid large place, large enough, in fact, to hold twenty thousand people, and it was very well, neatly and tastefully decorated, with the usual pillars and poles, garlands, flags, standards, wreaths, medallions, transparent paper lamps of variegated colours and other ornaments; but gas light was not employed, for economy's sake I presume. The fire-works last night were most tasteful, and reported by some travellers as good as they had seen in Europe. The masquerading part of the games was anything but choice, or even numerous: in the 'corso' display they were mostly all dressed in the negro garb, and as sailors and sailors' wives, the best one being a gang of negro planters, which was numerous and very appropriately got up as Cuban planters; and a gang of sailors with all their usual paraphernalia of oars, hooks, rudders, tillers, cutlasses, dressed in blue and carrying anchors, chains, (no ships,) and the unavoidable standard covered with wreaths and other showy ornaments. There were altogether, perhaps, twenty gangs or 'comparsas' in the 'corso' with the usual accompaniment of bands of music, equestrians, etc. The 'corso' was accompanied by numerous masqueraders in carriages, in very good style, and I noticed among them one dressed personifying Napoleon III., another Beaconsfield and other characters which were very good. One fellow presented himself on stilts and called much attention. A large waggon, appropriately decorated, exhibited a gang of 'idiots,' and in my very humble opinion it was the only contrivance that showed good sense. I did not see this time any of the usual gangs of Turks, Greeks and Mahomedans, which were usually confined to the poorer classes of masqueraders. The Oriental garb seems neglected, though it used to form a component part of the games. Some few Arabs mounted on good steeds and dressed like the modern Moors were in good taste. These were not among the 'corso' I think. But, strange as it may appear, no masqueraders came forth in the picturesque garb of the South American Indians of the old time; not your modern Pampa Indians but the Guarani and Churrua Indians with their ostrich feather head-dress, buck-skin boddices and other skin garments, the Peruvian and Mexican Indians with their beautiful variegated colours of feathers, their bows and arrows and pretty leggings; even the North American Indians with their strongly marked features, war paint, skin dress and tomahawk, though less fanciful than the garb of the South American Indian, is a very pretty dress for such exhibitions. The ancient Cavalier garb is also neglected. In fact, there was an evident want of good taste in the present year's demonstration, which shows that the more refined class of society did not partake much in the display.

The committee of management was composed of gentlemen whom no one seemed to know; but they evidently wished to please, and studied well the effect of their presentation.

I understand the whole affair was got up by the police at the Government expense, but I imagine that there is some exaggeration in this, got up by the opposition party in order to show the extravagance of expenditure; and I feel confirmed on this point, to a certain degree, when I remember that the 'cedulillas' or public raffles, got up for the Carnival days, licenses for masquerading, fines, and other similar resources, give very large amounts to the police, and these moneys are all employed in defraying the public feasts. Still, for all the beauty of the games, Carnival is a thing that should be energetically condemned the same as the bull-fights, as it brings about many disorderly habits among the people at large, useless expenditure in the family circles in times of penury and want, and very evil consequences to many poor girls led astray by temptation, opportunity or compulsion. It is shown by statistical demonstration, published by the board of the Public Infant Asylum, that nine months after such feasts the children left at the 'torno' of the asylum and delivered thereby to public charity are exceedingly great in number, which shows that these long feasts and consequent disorder are a source of inmorality and should be condemned as the ancient Bachannal Games which they perpetuate. Modern civilization, though unfortunately accompanied by many vices of different kinds, tends with reason to condemn such games as the bull-fights, and Carnival sports, which perpetuate the ancient disorderly sports of a semi-barbarous people.

I have nothing new worthy of record. Everything is quiet, and though slowly recovering from the protracted crisis we have been labouring against, still evidently advancing towards a better state of things as far as the general industry of the country is concerned, especially looking to its future welfare. Still, I do not like the aspect of politics; the strong or energetic system of Government existing seems to find very serious opposition in the mind of the leading men of the various political parties, and they are working just as energetically to thwart the Government by every means in their power, condemning every measure taken, good or bad, and discouraging enterprize. The Government has done many good things, but for all that, not one of the political parties of the country is in its favour, or supports it. The Government stands by itself supported by its bayonets, and I think the result of this political system, for all the advantages it has had in favor of many very sensible reforms and economical measures which have been productive of credit to the administration, will not be everlasting in good effects. The people cannot bear a strong Government, which they construe into downright tyranny, into something approaching a Government similar to Rosas's. No doubt a great deal is exaggerated, but there are things passing which require to be put a stop to, and are a natural consequence of the limited responsibility of such a system.

In private news I have little to say. Mr Carrick, managing partner of Messrs Proudfoot Hall and Co., is retiring from the business and has had his furniture sold. There was a match played yesterday at the Cricket ground. I was not present.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was a day of great political excitement in this city, and the gathering of politicians the night before in front of Governor Tejedor's house led to the belief that yesterday the Governor would publish a proclamation; but such did not prove the case, and the day passed without any further 'novedad' than that the National Government had telegraphed to the frontier for more troops. The meeting called for to-day at Mr Edward Madero's house it is hoped will lead to a solution of the grave difficulties that have arisen. All the leading men of Buenos Ayres who are not politicians will attend common sense, we have no doubt, will finally prevail. Mr Sarmiento's letter in the Nacional met with the highest approval in commercial circles; it should be conclusive for every Argentine with a spark of love of country in his breast. The National Government sent a brief note yesterday to Governor Tejedor, making a last appeal to his patriotism, to save the situation by enforcing the decree of disarmament.

The French steamer Bourgogne brings dates to 14th January. Riots continue in the West of Ireland, and the Constabulary have been reinforced. The Government has advanced £250,000, from the Surplus Church Fund, for Public Works to give employment to the people. Political affairs look very glum. A difficulty has arisen between Great Britain and Persia, and the former threatens to occupy Herat at once. Everything quiet in Cabul and an amnesty granted to all but the leaders of the recent revolts. Russia continues enormous preparations for war. Anarchy is the rule in Bulgaria, Bosnia, Servia, and all those wretched Principalities that have given Europe so much trouble of late years. Things look fidgetty in France. Louis Blanc has started a red-hot Red paper in Paris, called the Reveil Social, and the Prefect of Police has prohibited the publication of another sheet which was to be called the Citoyen (ominous name!) and edited by a string of gentlemen whose communistic tendencies are what the illustrious Captain Rag would call T.W.K. Great want and misery prevail amongst the working classes all over Europe, especially in Italy The Empress Eugenie will sail from England for Zululand on the 26th of March.

Valentine's Day! We need hardly remind our British-born unmarried readers of this ancient festival. We infer that all the 'lovers sighing like a furnace' have their poetical missives ready for the post, if not already posted. If their muse prove rebellious, Messrs. Jacobsen, Mackern, Dewey, or May will save the situation for them, as we suppose they have a full stock of valentines on hand.

The Provincial Senate met on Friday to consider the nomination of D. Ventura Martinez as President of the Western Railway, but, after a short debate, decided to postpone the matter till to-day's sitting.

Good news from Corrientes. The Governor there has expropriated the land for the railway extension to Ceibo, and ordered that it be handed over by the 1st of March at latest.

Watches and children were missing to an alarming extent during Carnival. The pickpockets had a glorious time of it, and swept off time-keepers by the five score. Mr. Eusebio Garcia was relieved of a watch which he had carried safely through 26 previous Carnivals. As for children, they were lost in such numbers that at one Comisaria alone notice was received of over 20 juvenile citizens being missed from their hearths and homes.

Navarro will be the place for sport next month. On the 7th the great 30,000$ m/c a side match between Messrs. Valle and Papsdorff's horses will come off, and on the 15th and 16th the usual Autumn Meeting, although Summer will not be over till the 21st. But that's nothing. The sport promises to be excellent.

Dr. Burmeister's third volume of the Physical Aspects of the Argentine Republic has just been issued. The eminent savant will leave shortly for a scientific tour in the Interior.

The tone of the Russian and German newspapers towards each other is again getting very bitter, which strengthens the views of many who think that war between these two great military Powers is all but certain in the coming Spring.

Whoever wants to learn a good deal about Patagonia, the Coming Province of the Argentine Confederation, should buy a copy of Dr. Zeballos's excellent 'Geographical Review' of that immense territory. It gives a deal of very useful information.

The Tribuna Popular of Montevideo alludes to a movement down there for the annexation of Banda Oriental to this republic. It might suit B.O. but not this country just at present, and the scheme may be set down as compressed moonshine.

The usual nonsensical ceremony of burying Carnival will not come off to-morrow, and we shall be free of the tomfoolery for another year. No more masquerade balls after to-morrow. The Government forbade the Funeral.

The entries for the Flower Show will close to-day. Wives, weather and politics permitting, this will be one of the most fashionable fetes of the season.

The Revista Medica does not hold a favourable opinion of the sanitary situation of Buenos Ayres. It says that the city is sleeping on the edge of an abyss in which yellow fever, filthy lodging houses, infected hospitals, bad water, worse water-closets and a general prevalence of small pox, fevers, brain diseases etc etc. are all lying in wait for us. It is lucky that the summer is more than half over, if our colleague's view of sanitary matters is the correct one; and we have too much reason to fear that it is.

The Caridad Lottery of Montevideo has announced another Monster Prize (50,000 pats gold) for the 25th of May. Until the Managers of the Lottery condescend to tell the public who won the 100,000 pats in the Christmas Eve Drawing, and when it was paid, they can hardly expect the public to purchase many tickets for the drawing in May.

The news from Corrientes is that the doctors up there have at last managed to get through a post-mortem on the remains of the late lamented Colonel Placid Martinez, who, according to the gentlemen who differed from him in politics, had been treacherously poisoned. The story, as usual when party strife is in question, turns out to be pure invention: the man died from consumption, one of his lungs being quite diseased, and everybody in Corrientes knew that he had long been a sufferer from the complaint.

We had the pleasure of a visit from Mr Nicholas Lowe of Mercedes yesterday; he reports everything flourishing out there and the town growing out of its boots, upwards of 50 new buildings being in course of erection. Carnival was very gay and remarkably wet out there; half the wells in the place run dry.

Mr. O'Nix (an Irishman we presume) writes a very spirited article in the Heraldo de America on the recent Carnival, and throws out some excellent suggestions for next year, one of them being that of comparsas of ladies and gentlemen on horseback, in such costumes as those of the dames of Catherine de Medici's court, the Mosquetaires de la Reine etc. This would certainly be a vast improvement on the negroes, negresses, 'carros de mudanza' etc. of the past Carnival, and we hope Mr O'Nix's voice will find echo in fashionable quarters. Most of our colleagues are in enthusiastic raptures about the 'carros de mudanza' departure, but we pity their taste. Our friend O'Nix says that the 'carros' renaissance has its origin purely in economy, as few people could, would or should pay the outrageous prices asked for coaches for Carnival by the jobmasters of the city.

The reports from all the wheat growing districts of this province are most favourable. All the grain is cut and is of splendid quality and yield. The falling off in the Santa Fe crop will probably not make such a difference as expected, owing to the very good crop in Buenos Ayres.

More elections. The politicians are already tuning up for the Provincial elections on the last Sunday of March. After that the election: and then the poor country may fairly expect some breathing time.

We see by the columns of our colleague La Paz that the list of Dr. Irigoyen's supporters is growing rapidly. The foreign community have but one opinion of Dr. Irigoyen, viz: that he would make an excellent President of the Republic.

One of the best actors of Rossi's dramatic company, Sr. Calantoni, appears to have remained in the Plate: he is announced to appear in Hamlet on the 22nd inst, at the Goldoni Theatre.

Esmeralda Cervantes, the great harpist, is expected to arrive here next month, but she wont stay very long, as she is a prodigious pet in Chile, and will only look in here on her way round.

The Pacific Steam Navigation Company has issued a most useful table showing the days of sailing and arrival of its vessels at all the ports of call between Valparaiso and Liverpool. We have to thank the popular agents of the Company for sending us a copy.

The news from Montevideo is unpleasant. During Carnival no fewer than four fires took place there. Mr. Schenger's splendid German brewery, in Calle Constituyente, was burned to the ground, the loss in beer, building and machinery being 20,000 pats. President Latorre and several of the highest officials lent vigorous but vain aid to subdue the flames. The other places burned were a barraca in Calle Yi, a bayloft at the Reducto and a private house in Calle Ibicuy.

The Capitania has invented another pleasant little 'novedad' for ocean bound steamers, viz., that they will not be allowed to weigh anchor till an official from the Capitania has left his card on the Captain, 'pour prendre conge.' We cannot see any utility whatever in this 'visit.' We hope the port authorities will not go a step farther and insist on the captain or the polished purser returning the call before sailing.

The latest advices from Asuncion announce the arrival there of a deputation of Caingnas Indians, to ask President Barreiro for ploughs and other farming implements wherewith to convert their 'toldos' into agricultural colonies. We suppose President Barreiro will give the tools, it he has them, or can purchase them on convenient 'tick.' The river was rising with unprecedented rapidity when the mail left, and general fears of an overflow were entertained by dwellers along its banks

CRICKET.

BUENOS AYRES v. MONTEVIDEO

The annual match between these two clubs came off on Monday and Tuesday last at Palermo. The B. Ayreau winning the toss commenced batting and up to half past one the score was promising, being 97 for 3 wickets down. After lunch fortune forsook the home team, as the remaining wickets fell for 27 runs only, the total being 124. Montevideo then went in; the first three wickets, fell quickly, but Stokes and Christian getting well set, made a long stand when the latter was bowled for 32 runs. Harratt then followed and quickly ran up 41 by some tremendous slogging. When time was called the score was 5 wickets for 169 runs, Stokes being not out for 66. On Tuesday play was resumed at 11 o'clock, and Stokes was shortly after caught out for a well played innings of 79. The remaining wickets then fell quicker, the total score being 202. In the second innings Buenos Ayres with 78 runs behind made only 54, thus leaving Montevideo winners by an innings and 26 runs, as the following score will show:—

The great political excitement caused by the President's manifesto added 5 cents to the price of gold; patacones opened at 31.65, and closed at 31.70; beyond all doubt prices would have gone higher but for the weight of the exchange gold that came on the market for bills passed yesterday. It was very easy to note how speculation had seized the market, when before the bell rang 2 o'clock over one million patacones were sold.

Cedulas dropped an eighth and closed at 82⅜ cash, and 82½ end of February. Roads and Bridges have advanced ¼ on last sale. Treasury Bonds keep firm at 76, but National Bank Shares dropped to 58⅛.

There was certainly an uneasy feeling in the market to-day caused not so much by the President's manifesto as by the notice in the Nacion calling for a meeting on Sunday of the 'Tiro Nacional.' Merchants consider the notice ill-timed and out of place. Many gold speculators appear to be much alarmed at the shape things have taken, but it may suit the ring to create alarm at the moment in order the better to avail of the reaction. The position of the market was never better than at present, and but for the wretched political xcitement going on, gold would not command any higher premium than 10 per cent.

Exchange was done to-day at 5.32 and 5.30, and on London at 50⅛. The exchange market rules very buoyant and rates look up.

In mentioning the advent of Mr Barron, who comes to the Central Argentine Railway, a mistake occurred where it spoke of him or Mr Eddowes as manager; we distinctly wrote Vice-Manager, but the printer put Manager; we need scarcely remark that Mr Fischer is Manager of that line, and Mr Barron only comes as assistant.

At 4 o'clock it was announced on 'Change that an important meeting of merchants and capitalists will be held to-morrow (Saturday) at Mr Edward Madero's office, to consider the political situation, and adopt measures to prevent disturbance on Sunday. The news was well received, and Mr Madero merits the very highest praise for taking the initiative in this matter. It is about time that a conservative party should start up to preserve the peace of the country. It was said on 'Change that the 'Tiro Nacional' members may attend on Sunday, but they will merely meet as citizens and not armed; the statement in the Libertad of the Government having seized the place in Palermo is contradicted.

On Sunday Messrs Baltar & Quesada will sell 11,500 fine mestiza sheep on the estancia of M Murray, deceased, some of the finest sheep in the country; also 3,000 fine cows

For Feb. 29th 200 shares at 59½

The scarcity of paper money is the talk not only of the Bolsa but of the whole market, and the opinion is general that soon the Provincial Bank will stop discounting in toto, as the account of the specie note emission stands so:—

Emission authorized by law	$f.23,000,000
Less amortized by Nat. Govt.	2,655,451 84
	$f.19,344,558
Amount in circulation Jan. 31st, 1880	18,800,000
Balance to emit	$f. 544,558

It appears from the Bank balance sheet that last month the Bank emitted 1½ million, and in December a like sum. This money was of course required for produce, but it is now evident that no matter how tight money may be, the only emission this month can be $f.544,558, which is a mere trifle. Gold must be sold to pay for produce. The Bank has $f.47,626,304 locked up in Government and other loans not realizable, and we can only deduct from that large amount $f2,059,636 held by the sucursales. The deposits at interest reach $f38,728,262, and without interest $f.283,959, and the Bank holds in letras a cobrar $f34,951,648 in gold 1,515,913, and in specie notes and paper money $f.2,075,587 These figures are most important to show the cause of the present stringency in paper money.

Our commercial advices from Chuput, by the Mascarelo trader 'Gwenllian,' are favorable. Harvest just commencing (Jan. 20th), abundant crops, and grain in very good condition. It appears that another steam threshing machine is needed there, so as to clear away the stocks in something less than the usual 6 months. A party of colonists were out sealing, having purchased for the purpose the whaleboat sent down by the Bourg venture. Something approaching half a million bricks have been made this season, and buildings are going up on all sides. The Indian trade has become important, as shown by the cargoes of the 'Gwenllian' and 'Esperanza.' The Chuput, after all, is a splendid success, thanks to the pluck of our Celtic brethren.

Messrs John Norton & Sons, of New York, in their List of Exports to the River Plate, during the month of December, 1879, give the following vessels loading:—

The American mails bring the following wool advices;—

"Wool—Business remains quiet and the market generally without new features of a positive character. We find an abiding faith in the early future of trade, and pretty much all calculations appear to be based upon a liberal increase of the movement now that we have reached the turn of the year, and which is, according to programme, to bring with it additional strength to the entire position, and a line of values higher than any as yet reached. Stocks therefore are held with great strength even when of the least desirable quality, and no special effort to open negotiations is made by owners. Some few buyers have been making an effort to shop around during the dull period and pick up odd parcels at slight concessions, but have very rarely met with success in finding anything of this kind, and either satisfied their wants at full rates, or left the market empty handed, the latter the exception, as supplies are unquestionably wanted by manufacturers. Foreign descriptions still appear to have a firm position, and a larger amount could be placed if here at full rates, with quite a number of transactions in parcels to arrive, giving evidence that buyers are not afraid of the stocks coming forward. The exact basis of these movements, however, is not revealed, and as the spot transactions of the past three days are almost solely jobbing in form, a record of sales is more or less imperfect, with the exception of a considerable quantity of fine Montevideo, noted below, and of which we understand duplicates, or even larger purchases, have been made at Boston. Sales—30 bales Cape, 38c.; 25 bales Australian, 36c.; 25 bales do, 56½c.; 45,000 lbs. Cape, 5,000 lbs. secured East India, 400 bales Montevideo, 2,000 lbs. low Colorado, 15,000 lbs. Utah, 46,000 lbs. spring California, 128,000 lbs. fall Texas, 15,000 lbs. pulled wool, 1,500 lbs. domestic noils, 15,000 lbs. medium unwashed Indiana and Wisconsin, 25,000 lbs. fine washed (mostly Ohio), 2,000 lbs. unwashed Western, and 30,000 lbs. medium unwashed Kentucky and Indiana."

The following is the latest from Canada—

"Gre tly owing to the new tariff the manufacture of woollen fabrics has largely increased lately in Canada. The Provinces of Quebec and Ontario principally represent the woolen trade of the Dominion since Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the other Provinces possess numerous small factories known as 'custom mills,' but not any on a scale that could be said to affect the trade generally. There are 12 mills in the Province of Quebec, the aggregate value of whose products the past year has been $1,430,000. The total number in Ontario is 44, turning out an aggregate value of work during the past year of $3,300,005; making a total for both provinces, or for the Dominion, of $4,800,045. These mills are all reported as running on full time, and have at present orders sufficient to keep them fully employed up to the 1st of March next."

From Europe we have the following—

"The Wool Situation Abroad. The Jacquart of Elbeuf, while noting the rise in the wool market and the increased shipments from Sedan and other French manufacturing centres, states that the American and English markets are the most affected. The following resumen of the German markets is from the Deutsche Wollen-Generbe: 'There has been a very lively demand for combed wools in the Berlin market at from 55 to 56 Thl. per centner, and in two weeks 5,000 to 6,000 centners have been shipped to Saxony and Lausitz. The quotations in Breslau are very firm and purchases have been made for English account to a considerable amount.'"
